

Declaration of Independence

"When in the Course of human events, it becomes necessary for one people to dissolve the political bands which have connected them with another, ... to assume among the powers of the earth, the separate and equal station to which the Laws of Nature and of Nature's God entitle them...they should declare the causes which impel them to the separation."

Thomas Jefferson's Declaration of True Principles

1. The Declaration of Independence pronounced to the world that Nature's God _____ people with the right to determine their own government.
2. "We hold these _____ to be _____, that all men are _____."
3. All people are endowed by their _____ with certain unalienable _____,.... "life, _____ and the pursuit of _____."
4. "That to secure these rights, _____ are instituted among _____, deriving their just _____ from the consent of the _____." This clearly states that the government receives its rights from the _____ who receive them from the Creator.
5. "When governments become destructive of these ends, it is the right of the _____ to alter or to abolish it, and to institute _____ government."
6. The signers of the Declaration were serious about liberty and united to pledge their _____ and fortunes and to seek protection of Divine Providence.

Great Idea to Think Like a Founder - John Adams

"Posterity! You will never know how much it cost the present generation to preserve your freedom. I hope you will make good use of it!"

Declaration of Independence

"When in the Course of human events, it becomes necessary for one people to dissolve the political bands which have connected them with another, ... to assume among the powers of the earth, the separate and equal station to which the Laws of Nature and of Nature's God entitle them...they should declare the causes which impel them to the separation."

Thomas Jefferson's Declaration of True Principles

1. The Declaration of Independence pronounced to the world that Nature's God entitle people with the right to determine their own government.
2. "We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal."
3. All people are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable rights,... "life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness."
4. "That to secure these rights, governments are instituted among men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed." This clearly states that the government receives its rights from the people who receive them from the Creator.
5. "When governments become destructive of these ends, it is the right of the people to alter or to abolish it, and to institute new government."
6. The signers of the Declaration were serious about liberty and united to pledge their lives and fortunes and to seek protection of Divine Providence.

Great Idea to Think Like a Founder - John Adams

"Posterity! You will never know how much it cost the present generation to preserve your freedom. I hope you will make good use of it!"