

Six Purposes for Government

1. The Constitution was written to form a more _____ union among the states and create a carefully controlled National Government.
2. The Constitution would establish _____ by insuring impartial judgment with no corruption or favoritism.
3. Constitutional government would insure _____ tranquility.
4. The national government must provide for the common _____ of the whole country.
5. Laws under the Constitution should not favor one person or group over another but only _____ the _____ welfare of all citizens.
6. The Constitution was written to secure the blessings of _____ to ourselves and all the future generations.

Preamble

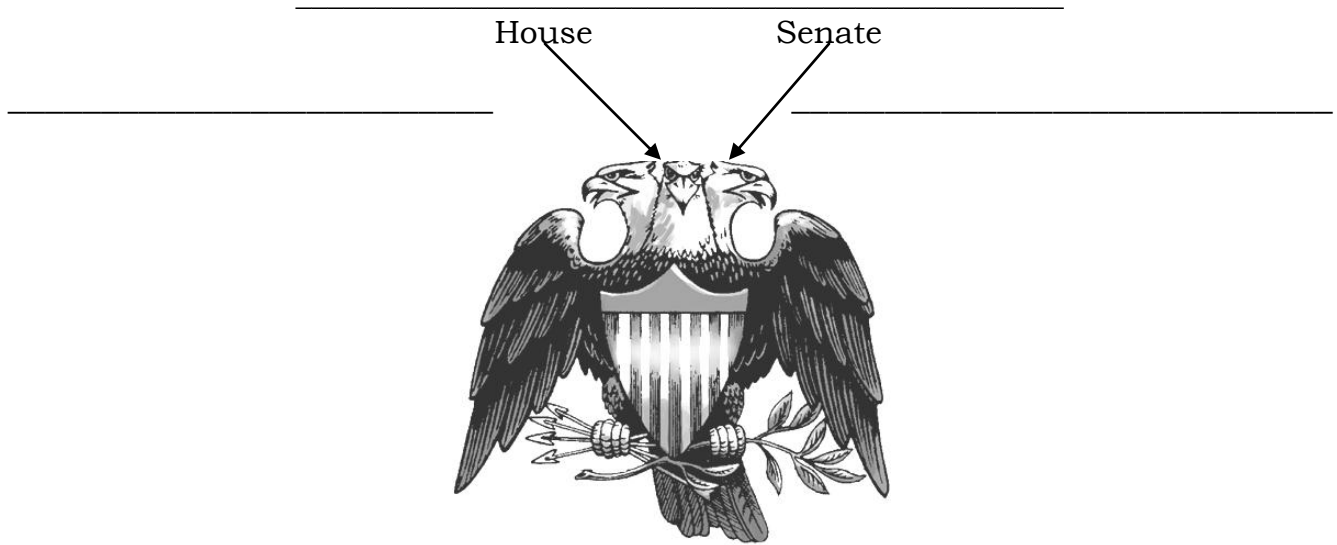

“We the people of the United States, in order to form a more perfect union, establish justice, insure domestic tranquility, provide for the common defense, promote the general welfare, and secure the blessings of liberty to ourselves and our posterity, do ordain and establish this Constitution for the United States of America.”

Great Idea to Think Like A Founder

*“What more is necessary to make us a happy people?
A wise and frugal government,...
which shall leave them free...and
shall not take from the mouth of labor
the bread it had earned.”*

Branches of Government

1. Article _____ is about the Legislative Branch. The Congress is given all _____ to make laws. A _____ is a proposed _____ that can start in either house of Congress.
2. Article _____ is about the Executive Branch. The President is given authority to _____ the law.
3. Article _____ is about the Judicial Branch. Judges of the _____ Court must decide if laws are Constitutional.
4. Article _____ requires that states honor the laws of every other _____.
5. Article _____ stipulates how to _____ the Constitution.
6. Article _____ requires state and federal members of the legislative, executive and judicial officials take an _____ to support the Constitution.
7. Article _____ gives direction to _____ the Constitution by nine states.

We will save our Constitution
And keep a good thing going!

Six Purposes for Government

1. The Constitution was written to form a more perfect union among the states and create a carefully controlled National Government.
2. The Constitution would establish justice by insuring impartial judgment with no corruption or favoritism..
3. Constitutional government would insure domestic tranquility.
4. The national government must provide for the common defense of the whole country.
5. Laws under the Constitution should not favor one person or group over another but only promote the general welfare of all citizens.
6. The Constitution was written to secure the blessings of liberty to ourselves and all the future generations.

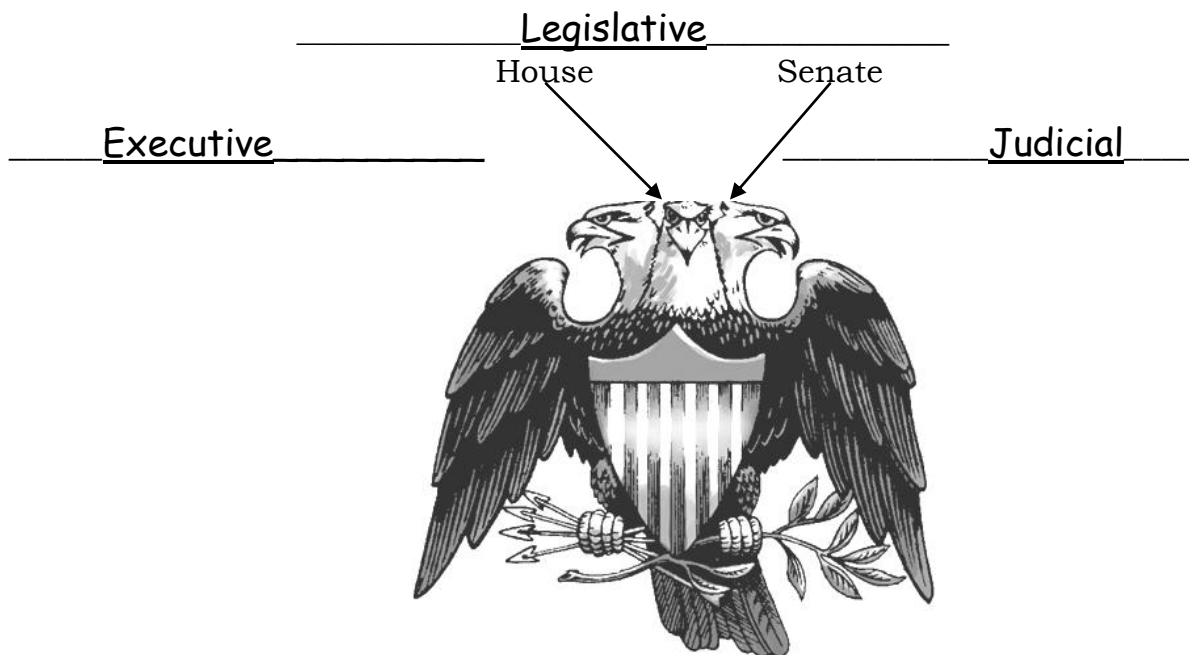

Preamble

“We the people of the United States, in order to form a more perfect union, establish justice, insure domestic tranquility, provide for the common defense, promote the general welfare, and secure the blessings of liberty to ourselves and our posterity, do ordain and establish this Constitution for the United States of America.”

Great Idea to Think Like A Founder

*“What more is necessary to make us a happy people?
A wise and frugal government,...
which shall leave them free...and
shall not take from the mouth of labor
the bread it had earned.”*

1. Article 1 is about the Legislative Branch. The Congress is given all powers to make laws. A bill is a proposed law that can start in either house of Congress.
2. Article 2 is about the Executive Branch. The President is given authority to enforce the law.
3. Article 3 is about the Judicial Branch. Judges of the supreme Court must decide if laws are Constitutional.
4. Article 4 requires that states honor the laws of every other state.
5. Article 5 stipulates how to amend the Constitution.
6. Article 6 requires state and federal members of the legislative, executive and judicial officials take an oath to support the Constitution.
7. Article 7 gives direction to ratify the Constitution by nine states.

We will save our Constitution
And keep a good thing going!