

Basic Political Spectrum

The Generic Political Spectrum indoctrinated in us by the media has Communism on one end and Nazism (Fascism) on the other end. Both ultimately are for big government run by a dictatorship or oligarchy. In one case the Government persuades the companies to enforce Government. While in the other case, Government uses force to enforce Government. The real Basic Political Spectrum is as below.

This deception has Divided and Conquered this country. Now is the time to recognize this and start reasoning it out for yourself.

The real Basic Political Spectrum is From 100% rule of a dictatorship(Total Gov) to 0% like that of Anarchy(NO Gov). What is in between you ask? Everything. Dems and Establishment GOP are both to the left of the center point. US Constitution is center.

As you can see, we are getting dangerously close to being a Dictatorship. This country has been using force to redistribute wealth for generations.

This tale of Left vs. Right is what THEY used to divide and conquer us. As you can see in this picture (the so called Generic Political Spectrum), THEY have distorted reality. What this drawing shows as extremes is in fact the same point on the "Basic Political Spectrum" shown above! YOU HAVE BEEN DUPED!

And what's really crazy is that we have jumped on board this deception with both feet. To explain:

- Author David Brin warned that "self-righteous indignation" has become an addiction that is gripping America and is worse than "heroin, cocaine, and alcohol combined." Brin explained that the thrill derived from being sanctimonious was beneficial in previous years when warfare was more commonplace, but has become crippling to the psyche of the modern population and has given rise to an "outrage industry" which fuels political polarization. "If you're constantly returning to the sense of pleasure that you get from being so right," he cautioned, "there is a real chance that you're a junkie." He blamed this paradigm for causing the death of negotiation and the inability to spawn conversations about problems which "could easily be solved if we just talked to each other." The Eventual Outcome of Extreme Government Structures

The Dictatorship will spin like a Top until it topples over. And it will topple over since one cannot support all. While the Anarchy will move slow and eventually be over run since there are too few people at the top of it to defend it. Some sort of happy medium must be found.

And when the Dictatorship topples, Anarchy is left in its wake. A new cycle of Political Power is started. Anarchy is not going to exist for long before someone takes over or invades.
